A BRIEF HISTORY OF SILCHAR COLLEGE

Silchar College was established in the year 1994 in an adjacent area of Silchar town, an area which is predominately inhabited by socio-economically backward classes as well as tea garden workers. Realising the necessity of establishing a College in the area, it was in a meeting held on 20th Feb. 1994 that a decision was taken by some prominent citizens and academicians to establish a College with the Arts Stream. The College was established in order to cater to the needs of higher education of the children of the locality and the neighbouring areas. The main aim of this College is to provide quality education to the students.

Initially, the classes were held in Nehru High School, Singari. It was later shifted to the present campus at Kabirgram on Chincoorie Road. We pay our gratitude to the descendants of Late Tilak Singha who donated the land to the College along with the co-operation from the descendants of Late Mridanga Guru Surjomani Sinha and others.

It is important to mention that, the financial support of 2 (two) lacks from Satindra Mohan Dev Trust, Silchar in the initial period and later on 5(five) lacks from Oil India Ltd., Silchar with the initiative from Santosh Mohan Devji was very necessary for the establishment of the College. This amount of money helped us in the most crucial period.

At the present moment, the College is at a stable position and has been provincialised under provision 4(1) of the Assam Venture Educational Institutions (Provincialisation of Services) Act, 2011 as Amended 2012 and 2013. Expansion and development works are still under process.
